DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1, 4-7, 10-14, and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. The reflection optical switch system is critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976). The reflection optical switch system is only stated in the preamble of the claim. The detail structure of the optical switch is not claimed in the body of the claim. It is not clear how the claimed structure can be operated as a reflection optical switch system.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 7, the following statement in the last two lines, "...when actuated getter impurities from the fluid stored in the chamber.", is not clearly stated in claim 7.

Claims 4, 5, 10, 11, 17, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear how the gettering structures are "optically accessible from outside the chamber". "Optically accessible" is not clearly defined in the claim.

In claims 5, 11 and 18, the term "coupon" is not clearly defined in the claim.

Note that the definition of "coupon" in WEBSTER'S II, New Riverside University Dictionary, is "1. a negotiable certificate. 2. a detachable part, as of ticket or advertisement. 3. a detachable slip calling for periodic payments.". It seems none of the definitions can be applied to the claimed language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1, 6, 7, 12,14, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Nystrom et al [USPAT 6,477,222].

Nystrom et al disclose an optical switch system comprising:

A chamber 14;

Gettering structures 30 within the chamber, the gettering structures including heating components [column 5, lines 21-23].

The claimed method of operating the device, such as "...when actuated...", is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore this limitation has not given any patentable weight.

In claim 7, note that the limitation, "...that stores fluid..." has not given any patentable weight because the chamber can store any material, and Nystrom et al chamber certainly can store fluid.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 4, 5, 10, 11, 13, and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nystrom et al.

Nystrom et al disclose every aspect of claimed invention except for the gettering structures including bridge structure.

It would have been obvious to the ordinary skilled person in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device to include the bridge structured electrode heater for the purpose of covering the chamber. Nystrom et al teach at column 5, lines 21-23 that direct electrical resistance heating can be utilized for heating the fluid reservoir.
